

FUTURE-USE SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION 2011-2012

FOLDS of HONOR FOUNDATION

This application is for the young dependents of fallen or disabled military service men and women. Eligible applicants are infants up to, and including, students enrolled in the 11th grade.

Application Deadline: March 15, 2011

INFORMATION:

Folds of Honor Foundation (FHF) provides post-secondary educational scholarships for children and spouses of military service men and women killed or disabled while serving our great nation.

- Scholarships are to be used to subsidize the costs of tuition, school books, fees, on-campus or off-campus housing, on-campus board, special tools and equipment required for coursework, school-approved tutoring, and any other required educational expenses that are unmet.
- Future-Use Scholarship funds will be paid directly to the applicant's school at time of enrollment at a post-secondary educational institution. The standing policies and procedures of the school will guide the release of funds to students for the eligible educational expenses listed above.
- Scholarship Recipients beginning post-secondary education in 2010 were awarded up to $5,000. Your actual scholarship amount will be determined by your unmet financial need at the time of enrollment at a post-secondary educational institution.
- Applicants will be notified via mail and email regarding award decisions at the end of May 2011. FHF will also contact recipients at various times during the year. Please notify FHF at scholarships@foldsofhonor.org if any of your contact information changes.
- The FHF scholarship is administered by Tulsa Community Foundation.

ESSAY

The essay may only be one-page in length. We ask that your essay be computer prepared or hand printed. If you do not use this page for your essay, please write and sign a statement exactly like the one below.

Your answer should include the following:

- Paragraph 1: Short Bio (include your hometown, highlight areas such as your academic, extra-curricular, and community service accomplishments, and any part-time jobs, travel or hobbies)
- Paragraph 2: Briefly describe the circumstances surrounding the service member's disability or death.
- Paragraph 3: What would this scholarship mean to you and how will it help you achieve your career goals?

If the child is too young to write this essay, then the parent should write it on the child's behalf and include the following:

- Paragraph 1: Short Family Bio (include your hometown and family activities)
- Paragraph 2: Briefly describe the circumstances surrounding the service member's disability or death.
- Paragraph 3: What would this scholarship mean to your family and how will it help the applicant achieve future goals?

I declare that this essay is my own work, and that all the information in my application is, to the best of my knowledge, correct.
