SCHOLARSHIPS APPLICATION

The NBA training scholarship allows qualified individuals to receive complementary admission to the BUILDING SUSTAINABLE COMMUNITIES, OKLAHOMA CITY, OK.

A limited number of scholarships are available for the above workshop to qualified individuals. Qualified individuals include those who work for state agencies, municipalities, non-profits and academic institutions. Scholarship applications are awarded on a first come basis, to qualified individuals with proper identification. All scholarships are provided by the National Brownfield Association at its sole discretion and maybe withdrawn at anytime for any reason. If you have any questions, please contact Mary Hereford, (224) 567-6790.

The National Brownfield Association, headquartered in Chicago, is a non-profit, member-based organization. It is the leading non-profit organization dedicated to promoting sustainable development. The NBA encourages the use of green design and construction practices, clean energy and green transportation in brownfield redevelopment projects. The NBA represents the wide range of public and private sector professionals involved with brownfield redevelopment, including, property owners, developers, investors, service professionals, government representatives and elected officials. Its mission is carried out through three primary conduits: information, education and events. NBA is the “go-to” organization for information on the brownfield market, keeping its members up to date on market trends, redevelopment opportunities, and changes in policy and legislation.

FUNDING FOR THIS PROGRAM WAS PROVIDED BY USEPA.
