

The Dar Williams Project

Historic preservation education opportunity in downtown Ponca City!

Photo by Jay Wagner

Overview:

In partnership with the City of Ponca City, please join Ponca City Main Street during our Fall Mixer networking event for an evening of education and entertainment by Dar Williams. Ms. Williams has been described as one of America's very best singer-songwriters. She travels around the country performing and speaking on topics such as one's own ability to achieve power and resilience, revitalization of small communities and embracing historic preservation and local culture. She is recognized as an author, educator and urban planning expert. We are very excited and fortunate for her to be in Ponca City!

Where: The Summit at City Central (400 E. Central Ave.)
When: Tuesday, November 8th
Time: 5:00pm - 7:00pm
Cost: Free
Who: Open to the public

The activity that is the subject of this speaking engagement/performance has been financed in part with federal funds from the National Park Service, U.S. Department of the Interior.

However, the contents and opinions do not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the Department of the Interior, nor does the mention of trade names or commercial products constitute endorsement or recommendation by the Department of the Interior.

This program receives Federal financial assistance for identification and protection of historic properties. Under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, as amended, the U.S. Department of the Interior prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, disability, or age in its federally assisted programs. If you believe you have been discriminated against in any program, activity, or facility as described above, or if you desire further information, please write to Chief, Office of Equal Opportunity, National Park Service, 1849 C St., NW, Washington, C.C. 20240.

