

Call for Proposals - UPDATED

OACADA Fall 2019 Conference

Friday, September 13, 2019

Southern Nazarene University

Community - n. A feeling of fellowship with others, as a result of sharing common attitudes, interests, and goals.

Applicable Topics May Include:

- building relationships among students, staff, and faculty
- examples of encouraging engagement in advising communities
- supporting fellow advisors in professional and learning commitments
- experiences in building advising communities

This would be an excellent opportunity to collaborate with other advisors both within and outside of your home institution!

Note to Presenters

All presenters must register for the conference. OACADA will no longer waive the conference fee for lead presenters. Presenters must arrive 30 minutes prior to presentation (if not attending entire conference).

Presenters are responsible for providing all copies and handouts for presentations. OACADA will provide the space and necessary equipment.

For questions, contact Holly Thomas, Professional Standards and Development Chair, at hthomas@ou.edu.
