

Prospective Teacher Academy

This FREE event is for high school juniors and seniors who will be attending UCO or a community college and want to become a TEACHER.

Friday, March 6, 2020 | 9 a.m. - 3 p.m.

University of Central Oklahoma, Education Building Rm. 101

STUDENTS WILL HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO:

- Learn how you can be a leader on campus!
- Learn how to get scholarships, grants, and a job on campus!
- Learn how to make great grades and watch out for pit falls!
- Learn about the UCO teacher education program and what you need to do to enter into the program!
- Learn about the teacher certification exams and how to prepare for them!
- Learn about teacher organizations you can join and how to get involved!
- Learn how to choose the best professors, we have so many of them!
- Make NEW friends!
- Begin building your college resume! - This activity will be your FIRST listing for future scholarships and awards!

Register Online: Prospective Teacher Academy 2020

- Limited seating per session, register early
- School groups are welcome.
- Invite friends who share your interests. Forward them the link to register!
- A family member is welcome to attend with you, we believe in creating supportive networks.
- Count this as a College Visit Day! We provide documentation for your school.

This activity is FREE! Paid for by a Grant sponsored by the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education, Oklahoma Teacher Connection: Teachers and Leaders Academy V.

Reach out to UCO Professional Teacher Education professor, Dr. Susan Scott, for more information or questions at sscott@uco.edu or 405.974.5425.

