

Virtual Prospective Teacher Academy

This FREE event is for high school juniors and seniors who will be attending UCO or a community college and want to become a TEACHER.

Friday, May 8, 2020 | 10 a.m. - Noon

Due to COVID-19, the academy will take place via Zoom.

STUDENTS WILL HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO:

- Learn how to get scholarships, grants, and a job on campus.
- Learn how to make great grades and watch out for pit falls.
- Learn about the UCO teacher education program and what you need to do to enter into the program.
- Learn about the teacher certification exams and how to prepare for them.
- Learn about teacher organizations you can join and how to get involved.
- Begin building your college resume! - This activity will be your FIRST listing for future scholarships and awards!

Register Online: Prospective Teacher Academy 2020

- Limited number of spots available, register early.
- Invite friends who share your interests. Forward them the link to register!
- A family member is welcome to join with you!

This activity is FREE! Paid for by a Grant sponsored by the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education, Oklahoma Teacher Connection: Teachers and Leaders Academy V.

Reach out to UCO Professional Teacher Education professor, Dr. Susan Scott, for more information or questions at sscott@uco.edu or 405.974.5425.

