Student Loan Consolidation & Payment Reduction Program Prepared For:

NEW LAWS DISCOUNTING FEDERAL STUDENT LOANS

Do you intend to get out of the cycle of high-interest student loan debt? Our records indicate that your federal student loans may be eligible for a consolidation with the U.S. Department of Education. As a federal student loan holder, you may be eligible to convert your current high-interest loan into a federally-backed consolidation with a lower rate*. Are you willing to save thousands of dollars a year?

These government programs are based on income and family size, aimed to be as affordable as possible for each individual. Your loans in the amount of $26,326 may even be eligible for total loan forgiveness. What do you intend to do with the money you may save? Buy your dream home? Take that much-deserved vacation?

Benefits of this program may include:

- No credit check
- Interest rate reduction
- Lower monthly payments based on income and family size
- Loan forgiveness

It's time to finally take control of your student loan debt. Please create your Federal Student Aid ID and give our experts a call by 4/17/2020 or before your next payment is due: 866-439-6187

CREATING YOUR FSA ID

To create your new student FSA ID, go to the URL below to reach the Federal Aid Website. Follow the steps completely to create your ID.

IMPORTANT: This is a government website. FSA ID creation is a government program which the student loan department did not create.

We are not affiliated with the government or any of its programs. We offer private, fee-based application assistance to aid consumers in applying for government offered programs. While such programs may be available for free directly by various government agencies, our services are fee-based and focus on application and document preparation. We do not charge fees for access to such programs, only to prepare and counsel application to these programs. Services may be fulfilled by a third party processing agency.

*The Department of Education may offer an interest rate reduction with set-up of automatic payments.
